

General

All applicants must complete the online application form in full, pay the nominated fee and agree to the participant agreement before their entry is accepted. The Sid James Victor Harbor Triathlon has the right to refuse any entry to this event. Entry fees & registrations are non-transferable from one competitor to another. It is forbidden to participate in an event under another competitor's registration.

Fees Incomplete entries or declined payment transactions may incur additional administrative fees.

Triathlon Australia Members All Triathlon Australia members must include their licence numbers when registering or they will be charged the non-member fee. A Triathlon Australia membership is defined as the full athlete membership - i.e individuals that hold a "non competing non-training" membership are considered non-members for the purpose of event entry as per the conditions of Triathlon Australia Membership.

Method of Entry Race entry is via secure online registration only. Faxed, phone or email entries will not be accepted.

Late Entry: In the event that entries reach our venue capacity, the event will be listed as SOLD OUT and no late entry will be possible. If entries do not sell out, late entry is available on the day with the applicable late entry fee.

Closing Dates Online entry closes at Midnight on Wednesday the 9th of March 2022.

Refunds Requests / Cancellation Fees All entry fees are non-refundable after 5pm two weeks prior to the race week end. Withdrawals from the event prior to two weeks from the event will be refunded the full entry fee, minus a $20 administration fee. All refund requests are to be made via email

Email: victorharbortriathlon@gmail.com

If eligible, refunds will be issued by the same method as payment.

Cancellation Policy The organisers reserve the right to alter the advertised course, to postpone, reschedule or cancel the event if conditions warrant it or otherwise at the organisers sole discretion, including for the following reasons: if natural or man-made emergencies make administering the event unreasonable due to adverse weather conditions, natural disaster, acts of god, terrorism, war or any other reason that may affect the safety of participants, organisers and spectators (at the organisers sole discretion). In the event of a cancellation, The Sid James Victor Harbor Triathlon will credit entry to another race, or in the event this is not possible, will discuss options with the entrant.

HOT WEATHER POLICY

TriSA has a hot weather policy to assist the Race Director make decisions when it comes to extreme conditions. The Race Director and the Triathlon Australia official would only cancel the event under the most extreme conditions using the hot weather policy guidelines.

Victor Harbor is normally up to 5 degrees or more cooler than Adelaide but has had one event with an extremely high temperature. It has been the only one in 15 years and the event still went ahead. Extra precautions are taken by the Race Director to ensure the event goes ahead but also keeping in mind the safety of competitors and volunteers. In the event of hot weather extra of everything including, water sprays, extra drinking water, extra sport drinks and extra shade will be provided as well as the consideration to shortening the event or events to ensure the event is not a total failure for all.

Competitors & parents must also be responsible to make their own decision on whether to compete or not. If they choose to compete, they must extra hydrate leading up to, during and after the event.

Competitors must also consider their own health on whether to race or just finish. Slowing down the pace, keeping cool and drinking plenty of fluids during the day may also help their bodies handle the heat stress in extreme weather.

Under NO circumstances will refunds be given if the event is cancelled for any reason.

Awards Every participant will receive an award for completing their event. We will also be acknowledging and awarding a medal for the first-place male and female from each category in our events.

Age Categories Your age for entry is your age at 31st December 2022. Entry to our events is governed by the age category allowances within the Triathlon Australian Race Competition Rule.
